Official Opening Hospital Wing In Fall

LAC LA BICHE — Work is still going ahead as rapidly as possible towards completion of the new hospital wing. When completed St. Catherine's Hospital here will have the most modern and up-to-date facilities in the Province.

It is expected that an official opening will be held in early fall, probably in September. The new wing is attached to the old hospital and occupies the lot along side which used to be the hospital garden.

Sea Cadets' Camp To Start Sunday

LAC LA BICHE — The annual Sea Cadet camp at Lac la Biche will commence this year on Sunday, July 17. Much work has been done at the camp since last year and more recreational facilities are on hand. So far applications have been received from the Red Deer Sea Cadet Corps to send a few boys here.

The Lac la Biche Sea Cadet camp, organized by Rev. Father McGrane is one of the finest boy's camps in Canada. It is situated across the lake, about 5 miles from town by boat, and 7½ miles by road. Because of heavy rains lately, Father McGrane has had to use the Corp's boat the "Exeter" to commute between town and the camp.

On Friday a group of visiting sisters to the Hospital from the United States made a tour of the camp. They travelled across the lake by boat.

The Sea Cadet Camp is fully equipped with mess hall, barracks, parade ground and a private lagoon to tie up the Corp's boats.

1913 License Plate Cost Only $1.00

LAC LA BICHE — The Lac la Biche Garage here displays a 1913 Alberta license plate, number 2479. Bob Rudigar, son of the proprietor picked it up in a local second hand store several years ago for only $1.00. As a collector's item it is probably worth considerably more. Bob doesn't know what the plates in 1913 originally cost the motorist.

Lac la Biche Mission

Mr. and Mrs. Vital Boucher's three-year-old grandson was drowned in Egg Lake on June 28.

Mr. and Mrs. Noel Plamondon and family from B.C. are visiting with Mrs. J. L. Jardif.

Rev. Father G. Menard of North Battleford visited Rev. Oblates and friends.

Rev. Brother Lacroix and Rev. Brother Tetrault have gone to St. Albert for their retreat.

THE SHALLOW "MELODY PAN" held by a young member of the Esso steel band, is actually the cut-off top of an oil drum, heated over a fire and then beaten into concave shape with a sledge hammer. The player beats on the drum face, marked off into notes by white-painted lines and tuned to the right pitch by an ordinary hammer, to produce a high-battering quality for calypsos, sambas, mambos and bongos.

Clearing Loans, Relaxed Regulations To Aid Alberta Homesteaders

Alberta homesteading is being encouraged by new land-clearing loans and some relaxation in regulations.

Homesteaders who already have 35 acres cleared and broken on their leased land now can borrow up to $1,000 from the Alberta Government to pay the costs of clearing and breaking additional land. The loans will be repayable at an interest rate of three and a half percent over 10 years; on overdue installments, the interest rate is 4½ percent.

Regulations on the loans are being prepared for distribution to homesteaders but any homesteaders wishing immediate information on the loans should write the Director of Lands, Department of Lands and Forests, Natural Resources Building, Edmonton.

Main changes in the homestead regulations are related to residence and cultivation duties. Previously, a homesteader had to live on or near his leasehold for six months each year beginning during the fourth year of his lease. Now, he can fulfill his residence duties by living on the land three months a year beginning in the fourth year. A total of 12 months' residence is required to be eligible to apply for title but this can be accumulated by two annual six-month periods of residence, three annual four-month periods, or four annual three-month periods. The minimum annual residence period for the fourth and each subsequent year is three months.

Another change is that the residence and cultivation duties can now be calculated separately. For example if a lessee performs his residence duties but not his cultivation duties in any year, he will get credit for the residence duties.

A total area of 4,150,000 acres in the Peace River and 3,400,000 acres in the central Alberta district is open for settlement but the amount of arable land in these areas is 2,605,000 acres in the northern district and 525,000 acres in the central district. Some of these arable lands cannot be settled until they have been sub-divided.

Any person, 18 years old or over, who does not own other land and who has lived in Alberta, for at least two years immediately prior to the date of application, may apply for a homestead, covering either a quarter-section or a half-section. The homesteader on an uncultivated lease pays one-eighth share of his crop to the Lands Department annually after the third year but pays no taxes.

After five years of satisfactory residence, cultivation and breaking duties, the homesteader can apply for title, paying $100 for a quarter-section lease or $300 for a half-section lease. The purchase price is reduced for each additional year's duties the homesteader fulfils after the fifth year and after ten years the title is granted without any payment.

Further information on homesteading is available from the Director of Lands or sub-agency offices of Lac la Biche, Bonnyville, Rocky Mountain House, Calgary, Edson, Peace River, and Grande Prairie.

INTERNATIONAL AIR TRAVELLER, ATOMIC SCIENTIST VISITS TOWN

By T. W. PUE

LAC LA BICHE — If the fabulous oil sands of the McMurray district — greatest oil reservoir in the world — are ever to be developed, it will be on a large scale. This is the opinion of Lloyd Lores Waites, scientist, geologist and mineralogist of New York City.

Mr. Waites, who during the war worked on the Atom Bomb experiments, flew into town to gas up at the government dock. He was accompanied by his two sons, Chris and Jon, who went on up to Uranium City with their father. They travelled in Mr. Waites' own private airplane — a 5-passenger Seabee with pusher-type propeller. Pilot was Wm. Brimby, an experienced north country pilot.

The stop was made in Lac la Biche to re-fuel on a trip from Couer de Lane, Idaho to Uranium City last Thursday evening. Imperial Oil dealer Cha. Lebas delivered a barrel of gas to the government dock and pumped the plane's tank full before take-off.

I met Mr. Waites in the dining room of the Lac la Biche Hotel where he had supper. He told me that, in his opinion, a refinery with 40,000 barrels daily capacity could be built at McMurray to refine the oil in the troublesome oil sands. So far they have defied an economical solution to the problem of separating the oil from the sands.

Annual Picnic Held In Hall

PLAMONDON — The annual church picnic this year was held in the Plamondon hall due to the rainy weather, and was a success.

Raffle prizes were won as follows: first prize, a stainless steel cutlery set, Miss Lillian Gauthier; second prize, a set of auto robes by Philip Schaub; third prize, a lantern flashlight, Alex Schaub; fourth prize, a cushion by Prosper Limoges, all of Plamondon.

The chicken supper was well served and is deserving of high compliments.

A very good show was shown in the evening and fireworks closed the day's entertainment.

Final Counts Show 70-Vote Difference

LAC LA BICHE — In the final count of votes in Lac la Biche constituency, it was shown that Liberal Michael Maccagno won out over Harry Lobay, Social Creditor by 70 votes.

The final count gave Maccagno 1,842; Lobay 1,772. Three years ago, in 1952, Mr. Lobay had won the election by a smaller margin than this.

There were a number of spoiled ballots that might have changed the picture somewhat if they had been properly marked. A number of voters marked their ballots with an "X", thus disqualifying their choice of candidate.

Wife Helpless As Oil Worker Drowns

FORK LAKE — Ralph Saucier, an oil worker for Young Drilling Ltd. drowned last Sunday in Fork Lake, near Lac la Biche. The mishap occurred shortly after five in the afternoon as Mrs. Saucier stood on the shore and watched helplessly. A second drowning was reported at Island Lake near Clyde when 16-year-old Edward Biggerman lost his life.

On Monday the bodies had not been recovered and RCMP were conducting dragging operations.

Kikino

Kikino baseball team went to the picnic at Normandeau last Sunday and they brought home second prize money. They beat Beaver Lake team and Briereville team and played Normandeau team for first prize money. The score was 7-8 for Normandeau.

The new supervisor and his wife came last Sunday. C. R. Greenwood is here, too.

There was a farewell dance in the Gairdner hall on June 30 for Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Johnston. There was a large crowd attended and at lunch time they were presented with a lovely gift from the people of Kikino.

Raymond Bellerose is home from the hospital in Edmonton.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Surwee and family who were in B.C. for some time, came back to visit their folks for awhile.

PROVINCIAL HIGHWAY TAKES BIG BEATING WITH HEAVY RAINS

LAC LA BICHE — Highway 46 from here to Redwater corner is in very bad shape as a result of last week's heavy rains. In some places, cars had to be pulled through the mud. Just west of Grassland a bulldozer was busy on Saturday, after the rains had ceased, excavating one bad spot of muskeg and filling it with more substantial road material.

Starting out from town, towards Atmore, a crew was busy putting fresh gravel on the highway. Dan Sadownik of Grassland is time-keeper on this job.

Returns From B.C. Rally

Delegates of the local congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses returned from their convention last week in Vancouver. The convention was the second of the series of 11 being held in this continent and in Europe this summer.

The Empire Stadium had been transformed into a huge place of worship — a mammoth "Kingdom Hall." At the open end of the bowl, a huge stage had been built, backed by a row of fir trees with multi-colored flowers in front.

A public address system, consisting of microphones on the stand feeding the 20 trumpet-type speakers, plus 75 additional speakers and controlled by a master panel located near the stage, was part of the equipment.

The Witnesses here reported a peak attendance of 21,877 at the stadium. Ten countries besides 35 states in the United States and eight provinces in Canada and the northern Yukon territory of Canada and Alaska were represented.

To provide rooming for the thousands of delegates, 3,000 private citizens opened their home to the Witnesses in addition to 3,500 listed hotels and motels. A rooming staff of 25 volunteer clerks, stenographers and typists took care of the office work necessary in filing.

A mammoth cafeteria staffed and operated by Jehovah's Witnesses served the Witnesses hot meals during the convention. Unique machines, such as a salad maker, and potato peeler were to prepare for about 75,000 meals served. To do this 10 serving lines were used to accommodate the hungry delegates. In addition 27 refreshment stands and roving workers with baskets serving hot dogs and ice cream kept another 700 volunteers busy.

Officials from the civil defence and Red Cross organizations in Vancouver surveyed cafeteria operations at the stadium with the view to caring for civil defense needs during an emergency.

Annual Picnic Planned

The annual picnic sponsored by the Colinton Community Club is to be held on Thursday, July 21. There will be midway attractions for the children, ball games, bingo, races and an open-air show featuring 'Bobbie England' and her dog.

Canadian Auto Industry Set New All-Time Record In May Of This Year

TORONTO, June 29 — Canadian automobile manufacturers in May, 1955, employed more people, turned out more vehicles, and yielded more tax revenue to the federal government, than in any month since the industry was started 52 years ago.

According to the Canadian Automobile Chamber of Commerce, the eight motor vehicle manufacturers in Canada had 42,907 persons on their payrolls in May, earning a total of $15,500,212 in wages and salaries. May employment was up from 42,552 in April and 41,467 in March, and was far ahead of the previous record of 40,586 in February, 1954. In addition to employment in the automobile factories, an estimated 150,000 Canadians get their pay checks from firms supplying components and materials. Another 55,000 work for motor car dealers.

The industry produced a record 58,131 passenger cars and trucks in May, topping the April total of 54,087 and the previous all-time high of 52,365 in April, 1953. May output included 41,780 passenger cars and 10,619 trucks for the Canadian market and 4,132 cars and 1,585 trucks for export.

Total production of 224,679 cars and trucks in the first five months of 1955, notwithstanding the fact one major company was virtually out of production for the first two months because of a labor dispute, still outstripped the 216,109 vehicles built in the first five months of 1954. However, it was behind the record 234,290 cars and trucks produced in the first five months of 1953.

Canadian government tax collectors had their richest take in history from the automobile business in May, garnering $21,679,930 from sales and excise taxes on vehicles. The highest previous month was May, 1953, with $19,053,050.

Notwithstanding a reduction of the excise tax on passenger cars from 15 to 10 per cent in the 1955 federal budget, the government's revenue from this source in May was $9,528,318, only slightly below the all-time record of $9,670,652 set in May, 1954. Sales tax on cars and trucks produced a further $12,151,612 in May, 1955, far above the former record of $9,524,971 in May, 1953.

Most Impolite

"Where's the car?" asked Mrs. Diggs.

"Dear me!" exclaimed Professor Diggs, "did I take the car out?"

"Of course you did. You drove it to town."

"I remember now that after I got out I turned to thank the gentleman who gave me a lift and wondered where he'd gone."

Grown Man Treated As Baby

Thomas Kennedy of Reuters, reports the peculiar case of Charlie Dunford of Reading, England.

He was born in 1905, and at the age of eight, Charlie was stricken with a severe attack of measles which left him frail and with impaired sight. Deciding he was too weak to play, and to protect his sight his mother kept his eyes bandaged. Charlie was kept in bed or in a wheel chair and fed from a baby's milk bottle until she died in 1952.

At her death he was taken to a hospital where doctors found nothing physically wrong with him. Charlie had to be taught to walk, to use a cup, carry on a conversation, weave rugs and train himself as a carpenter. He remembers nothing of the years before he came to the hospital. Today as a gray-haired man of 50 he walks around with a cane, and may yet have some useful years. For 40 years he had been treated as a babe by a too loving mother whose tender care made an unnecessary invalid of him.

Canadian Cellucotton Opens Winnipeg Plant

Winnipeg is fast becoming the manufacturing centre of Western Canada, as witnessed this week with the opening of the new Canadian Cellucotton Products Co. Ltd. plant in St. James.

The new mill, modern in every detail, will be a manufacturing and distributing point for Kleenex and other products for Western Canada.

The plant itself contains approximately 50,000 square feet of floor space and cost, with machinery, more than $600,000.

As a beginning, more than 50 local residents will be employed and trained for the new operation.

It is expected that in its first year of operation this plant will turn out more than 25% of all Kleenex used in Canada.

Agriculture School Plans Reunion

This year's Farm Women's Week is a very special one at the Olds School of Agriculture and Home Economics. They have planned a reunion of the 34 who attended the first Farm Women's Week held 25 years ago. A list of these members was recorded at that time and Mrs. Isobel R. Townsend of Erskine, Alta., is trying to contact all to meet at Olds again to celebrate the 25th anniversary of this organization.

Another highlight for the leaders and members in the program of all three Schools of Agriculture and Home Economics, Olds, Vermilion and Fairview, on the last day is to include the husbands. With inspection of the barns and livestock there is a demonstration lecture on farm mechanics, "Development in Hydraulics." A complete program may be had by writing to the principals of the Schools of Agriculture and Home Economics. The dates are July 4-7, Olds; July 11-14, Fairview, and July 18-20, Vermilion.

UNITED STATES FIRMS START WORK ON CAMPBELLTOWN, EAST OF CITY

Construction headquarters are being prepared this week on the Campbelltown site five miles east of the city, as work commences on the satellite town, which calls for the ultimate construction of 7,000 homes over 10 to 15 years.

The development was originated by J. H. Campbell, an Edmonton business man. A Colorado Springs mortgage investments firm and associates have taken over the original agreement made between Mr. Campbell and the Municipal District of Strathcona in 1953. Land owners involved in the original deal were Hon. A. J. Hooke, Minister of Public Works and Economic Affairs, George Smythe, Frank Smeltzer and Denis Hunter.

The Campbelltown project will be the joint undertaking of two U.S. mortgage firms and a construction company. They are A. L. Trowbridge and Associates of Colorado Springs, Claremont Construction Co. of Claremont, California and Pringle Hurd, mortgage brokers of New York.

First step in the development of the model town will be the erection of six model homes. As soon as these have been sold, construction of 300 more will be started. It is expected that homes will range in value from $10,000 to $15,000. Homes will be zoned into areas, each area having complete shopping facilities.

Scot Jailed For Bigamy

EDMONTON — A Scot was sent to jail for six months when he appeared in Edmonton police court Monday on a bigamy count.

The man, John McKenzie Adam, previously pleaded guilty to the charge.

The court was told Adam left his wife and two children in Scotland in 1954 and came to Canada. In February of this year, he went through a form of marriage with an Edmonton woman.

Police said they received a letter from Mrs. Adam, stating that the monthly payments from her husband had dropped and she wanted the matter investigated.

Edmonton Cuts Milk Deliveries And Prices

EDMONTON (CP) — Wednesday milk deliveries will be discontinued in Edmonton after July 13 in an effort to keep milk prices down.

The change, approved Monday by the public utilities commission, had been requested by the city's four major milk distributing firms to meet union demands for increased wages and a 40-hour week.

APPROXIMATELY 60,000 Edmonton homes will be affected.

The commission said "every effort should now be made by all those concerned with the production and distribution of milk to effect such economies as will result in a reduction in the price of milk to the consumer."

THE FIRM WHICH made the original application were Jasper Dairy Ltd., Woodland Dairy Ltd., Northern Alberta Dairy Pool Ltd., and Silverwood Dairies Ltd.

After eight months of contract negotiation with their employees' unions last year, a government conciliator ruled that if and when the five-day delivery system came into effect all milk route salesmen and route foremen would receive a $15-a-month wage increase.

Holiday Weekend Takes 69 Lives

The accidental death toll for Canada's Dominion Day week-end hit 67 Sunday night with drownings accounting for slightly more than half of the fatalities.

The 67 perished from causes directly attributable to the three-day holiday week-end. Fourteen others died under circumstances not related to the holiday, such as a murder, six industrial accidents and two suicides. They swelled the violent death list to 81.

Alberta's victims were: 14-year-old Mary Schneider of Mandala, 55 miles northwest of Edmonton, drowned in the Pembina River Friday; Alberta's other drowning victim is Wilfred Lester, about 30, of Barr-head, who was riding a motorboat that overturned on Lac la Poudre, about 45 miles northwest of Edmonton.

Albert Scheerler, 33, of Jasper Place was killed when the canoe he was driving overturned near May-erthorpe.

Uncle CHARLEY'S Epigrams

If you lend a feller ten bucks and never see him again, sometimes it's worth it.

It's no credit to be born a gentleman but it's an achievement to die one.

Tubby Tyler says that when he starts reachin' for his hat his wife will usually shut up.

Deacon Green says there was 14 buttons, 2 washers and a poker chip in the collection plate last Sunday.

It's better to go to church to behave rather than to be seen.

A feller's first kiss is like a new sewin' machine; It seems so good.

If we'd see ourselves as others see us we wouldn't believe it.

Nothin's as satisfyin' as gittin' a tax refund.

You can't take it with you and you're blamed lucky to keep it while you're here.

One way to take your troubles off your mind is to take up horseback ridin'.

Police said Leslie E. Durling, the child's father, was driving his car forward out of the garage to

Imperial Esso Calypso Steel Band To Play At Edmonton Exhibition

Trinidad's outstanding tin pan troupe, the oil drum drummers who played for Princess Margaret on her Caribbean tour last winter, will make its bow before western audiences this year in a 10-week tour of the major fairs from the Lakehead to the Pacific Coast.

Goodwill ambassadors from the British West Indies, the eight Esso Steel band members will beat out their exciting rhythms and perform their colorful dances for grandstand crowds at the Calgary Stampede, July 11 to 16 and the Edmonton Exhibition, July 18 to 23. They will also appear at Saskatoon, Regina, the Lakehead and the Pacific National Exhibition at Vancouver. The group is under the sponsorship of Imperial Oil Limited.

The Esso Steel band achieves its musical effect by beating with sticks wrapped with inner tube on discarded oil drums which they have specially tempered and tuned.

Tuning the drums has become such a highly developed art that some drums cover four octaves including rare quarter notes. The range of oil drum music is indicated in the repertoire of the band. Besides the standard Caribbean calypsos, sambas and mambos, the group can swing into the "Love-liest Night of the Year", toss off a French beguine, or break into "Ah Want to be a Bed Bug".

Out of the side-streets and alleys of Trinidad this new form of music is growing in stature around the world. The mere fact that serious, orthodox musicians now apply the term "music" to the steel bands from the Caribbean provides a measure of the recognition these untutored groups of oil drum beaters have achieved.

Steel bands from Trinidad have played concerts and festivals abroad, for royalty in their native surroundings and at last year's Canadian National Exhibition.

NHA Loans Boost Construction

BANFF (BUP)—A prominent finance company official says liberal lending under the National Housing Act and more money being available, helped make 1954 a record year for new construction.

J. W. Camfield, president of the Mortgage Loans Association, told the group in Banff, Friday, that 11,529 new housing units were built in Alberta last year, compared with 9,625 in the previous year.
